Comfort of all things literary. Some are for bookmarks, others are for wall decor, and still others can take on a whole host of finished outcomes. What they have in common is their literary bent—the patterns speak to all manner of literary-minded book lovers, who are happy to display their nerdier sides. And what better way than through your own cross-stitch art to hang on your wall, prop on your desk, or even gift to friends and family? Most if not all are beginner-friendly and can be completed in a few hours—instant stitchification! So grab yourself some excellent embroidery floss, hoops, and needles, and pick out one or more of these great cross-stitch patterns for your next project.

Clever, athletic and dignified, Yagan was already a leader among his people when pale-faced foreigners spilled uninvited upon the shores of the Swan River and started to make themselves at home - his home. Over the next four years, Yagan took a stand, and in the process forever etched his name on the story of Western Australia.

preventable active-shooter incident and an avoidable fatal plane crash. The base psychiatrist knew the airman was dangerous. "This is the kind of patient who ... one day ... he's going to come back and kill you." Aircrews knew the rogue pilot was dangerous. "We predicted the worst air-show disaster in history when we found out that he was gonna fly." Written by Andy Brown, the man who ended the killing spree, the result of more than seven years of research. Brown "masterfully weaves" the two stories together in a powerful narrative. He also reveals the preparations he made

Over a million tourists do in this spectacular reserve each year." -- Back cover.

"Architect Tom Kundig is known worldwide for the originality of his work. This paperback edition of Tom Kundig: Houses, first published in 2006, collects five of his most prominent early residential projects, which remain touchstones for him today. In a new preface written for this edition, Kundig reflects on the influence that these designs continue to have on his current thinking. Each house, presented from conceptual sketches through meticulously realized Comfort details, is the product of a sustained and active collaborative process among designer, builder, and client. The work of the Seattle-based architect has been called both raw and refined--disparate characteristics that produce extraordinarily inventive designs inspired by both the industrial structures ubiquitous to his upbringing in the Pacific Northwest and the vibrant craft cultures that are fostered there." --
