Ross Poldark's old flame and his deceased cousin's wife, now married to Ross's worst enemy George Warleggan, gives birth to a son exactly at the time of "the black moon", and George names him Valentine. Elizabeth hires her young cousin as governess for Geoffrey Charles, her 11 year old son wit. As always, Winston Graham has crafted a completely absorbing addition to the Poldark family saga, and in this one he took me along back into the 1700's of Cornwall and France — a willing ...
