~~Iris Murdoch~~
Under the Net was Iris Murdoch's first novel. It is narrated by James (Jake) Donaghue. In describing himself he admits: I am something over thirty and talented, but lazy. I live by literary hack-work, and a little original writing, as little as possible.

Concepts like religion and philosophy are concerned with those questions and try to provide answers to them. Nevertheless, there are still no satisfying explanations.

This is due to the fact that "our actual lived experience has no form or unity in itself, but is full of contingent rubble, accident, and unsystematized detail which may resist our attempts at unity"

(Antonaccio & Schweiker, Human Goodness 111). As our world is contingent, it cannot be completely understood.

Consequently, we should accept its contingency instead of denying it by trying to find an explanation to everything. The stress ratio between contingency and necessity is also the theme of Iris Murdoch's first novel Under the Net. Throughout the
